

California State University, Sacramento
Electrical & Electronic Engineering

Tenure-track Assistant/Associate Professor position to begin in Fall 2017. Specific area of interest is Communication Systems with emphasis on Wireless or DSP. Undergraduate degree and doctorate in Electrical Engineering or closely-related program are required. Doctoral candidates in the final stage of their degree will be considered, but must complete the Ph.D. by January, 2018. For further information about the department please see <http://www.ecs.csus.edu/eee>. Screening will begin January 9, 2017; position open until filled.

For detailed position information, including application procedure, please see: <http://www.csus.edu/about/employment/>. CSUS is an AA/EEO employer. Clery Act statistics available. Mandated reporter requirements. Background check, including criminal, will be required.